DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-18, drawn to an FIV DNA vaccine comprising the env gene. If applicant elects this group, applicant is required to elect a single accessory sequence listed in claim 14.

Group II, claim(s) 19, drawn to a method of preparing an immunizing lentivirus protein.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature defining the invention is drawn to a felid vaccine comprising a polynucleotide sequence comprising at least part of the envelope protein under the control of a eukaryotic promoter that is active in the felid. This special technical feature lacks novelty in the art. Wardley et al. (WO 95/30019, provided in the IDS) clearly anticipates an FIV vaccine comprising a polynucleotide sequence comprising at least part of the envelope protein under the control of a eukaryotic promoter that is active in felines, see claims 1-27. Accordingly, any subsequent patentably distinct invention lacks unity of invention with the first group, see 37 CFR § 1.476 (d).

The special technical feature of Group II is drawn to a process of making a lentivirus immunizing protein. This group lacks unity of invention with the first group because the special technical feature defining the invention lacks novelty in the art.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows listed in claim 14:

Art Unit: 1648

SEQ ID NO: 8

SEQ ID NO: 9

SEQ ID NO: 10

SEQ ID NO: 5

SEQ ID NO: 6

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The following claim(s) are generic: 1-13 and 15-18.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Each of the sequences do not share the same structure or function, which defines the feature of each molecule.

Art Unit: 1648

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
